

LA PALABRA ES LA REINA DEL MUNDO (AUT. 449)

While some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings, Jesus said, "All that you see here--the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." Then they asked him, "Teacher, when will this happen? And what sign will there be when all these things are about to happen?" He answered, "See that you not be deceived, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and 'The time has come.' Do not follow them! When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for such things must happen first, but it will not immediately be the end." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs will come from the sky." Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute. You will even be handed over by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives.

REFLEXIONES PARA LA ALIMENTAR NUESTRA RELACIÓN CON DIOS

In our life, there are persecutions, painful events, humiliations. As Lay Claretian, we are called to deal with them with trust in God, who cares for us and protects us. As Claret, we are confident that "everything happens for our good" (Aut. 44). Faced with the temptation of pessimism and bitterness when facing difficulties, the Word strengthens us to give ourselves to Him with greater enthusiasm, faithfully living the love of God,

REFLEXIONES PARA LA ALIMENTAR NUESTRA MISIÓN EN EL MUNDO

Today, in such a different world, Claret continues to teach us how to deal with adverse situations. His lifestyle is "follow and imitate Jesus Christ in working, suffering, and always strive for the greater glory of God and salvation of souls through actions to combat the evils of society; oriented missionary service for the promotion and release of brothers and sisters; being moved by an evangelizing passion; service to the word without refolded by fatigue, difficulties or persecutions ". ORACIÓN DESDE LA PALABRA

Lord, You have told us that no hair will fall from our head without you knowing. We trust you. You are always present in our lives, when we accept your plan of salvation, (Sourcebook 32) when things are not as we want or are not what we expect. Give us Lord words of fire, as you did to Claret, to burn the warm hearts of those who do not know you yet. Grant us Lord, an absolute trust in you.
