

THE WORD IS THE QUEEN OF THE WORLD (AUT. 449)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be. What came to be through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. A man named John was sent from God. He came for testimony, to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came to be through him, but the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, but his own people did not accept him. But to those who did accept him he gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in his name, who were born not by natural generation nor by human choice nor by a man's decision but of God. And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth. John testified to him and cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'The one who is coming after me ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.'" From his fullness we have all received, grace in place of grace, because while the law was given through Moses, grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. The only Son, God, who is at the Father's side, has revealed him.

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

¿What irresistibly attractive force has the Word that makes me feel that who looks at me is my good Father, who guides me is his Spirit, who accompanies me is Jesus? (Sourcebook 8)

IT'S THE WORD OF GOD (AUT. 450)

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR MISSION IN THE WORLD

What a stimulating and overwhelming force the Word has that moves me, raises me up, makes me go on the road to shout to all of us to prepare ourselves, that the Lord is coming, that fatigue and meekness of flesh, family and work are going to be hidden, mourning and feasts, Cross and Light for the world?

IT IS THE WORD OF LIFE (AUT. 450)

PRAYER FROM THE WORD

For the loving mercy of our Father God, will visit us his Spirit of Love, to illuminate our fatigue, obfuscation, loneliness, selfishness; to make our fear disappear, and to accompany us with his Son on the path of Joy and Peace. Merry Christmas.
