

THE WORD IS THE QUEEN OF THE WORLD (AUT. 449)

On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the day when the Passover Lamb was killed, and the disciples asked him, "Where would you have us go to prepare the Passover meal for you?" So Jesus sent two of his disciples with these instructions, "Go into the city and there a man will come to you carrying a jar of water. Follow him to the house he enters and say to the owner, 'The Master says: Where is the room where I may eat the Passover meal with my disciples?' Then he will show you a large room upstairs, already arranged and furnished. There you will prepare for us." The disciples went off. When they reached the city, they found everything just as Jesus had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal. While they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. And he said, "Take this, it is my body." Then he took a cup and after he had given thanks, passed it to them and they all drank from it. And he said, "This is my blood, the blood of the Covenant, which is to be poured out for many. Truly, I say to you, I will not taste the fruit of the vine again until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God." After singing psalms of praise, they went out to the Hill of Olives.

A COMMENTARY TO THE SUNDAY GOSPEL FOR AND FROM LAY CLARETIANS

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

Jesus answers the question of the disciple with specific and simple instructions, but without telling the final result. However, for us who feel followers of Jesus, the instructions that He gives us are not always so evident. When we ask Him where to go, He does not tell us the final destiny, but He indicates the steps in the way. We must rely on Him and accept what He ask us for. Jesus' generosity when staying present on the Eucharist can only fill us with joy and strength to follow this way. Like Jesus did, we look incessantly for the will of the Father; we discover it on His Word, on prayer, on churches' teachings, on the dialogue with the brothers, on the happenings, on the signs of the times and projects of our group; and we make from them our nourishment. (Id. 16).

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR MISSION IN THE WORLD

In order to prepare the celebration the disciples first ask their Master. Thus we before going into his encounter, we must prepare too, letting us be enlightened by Him. After Eucharist disciples accompany Him to the Mount of Olives. Does Eucharist send us to accompany every living Christ in society? Eucharist has for us, as it had for Claret, a marked apostolic sense, because it feeds in us the charity that encourages evangelization (Id. 38)

PRAYER FROM THE GOSPEL

We thank you Lord, for staying present in Eucharist, for showing us the path in our day-to-day and for loving us until the most. Light us so we can see and deal with the necessities of others. Being your followers, let us be truthful witnesses and servants of your Kingdom, living with radicalness all the demands you present to us. Amen.
