

THE WORD IS THE QUEEN OF THE WORLD (AUT. 449)

On the way to Jerusalem, Jesus was passing along the border between Samaria and Galilee, and as he entered a village, ten lepers came to meet him. Keeping their distance, they called to him, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!". Then Jesus said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." Now, as they went their way, they found they were cured. One of them, as soon as he saw he was cleansed, turned back praising God in a loud voice, and throwing himself on his face before Jesus, he gave him thanks. This man was a Samaritan. Then Jesus said, "Were not all ten healed? Where are the other nine? 18 Was no one found to return and give praise to God but this alien?" And Jesus said to him, "Stand up and go your way; your faith has saved you."

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

The reading from St Luke's Gospel (17:11-19) helps us reflect on how grateful we should be with our God, Creator and Father, within the temporal realities in which we live; whether in our family, our work or elsewhere, it is important to confess our faith as Secular Claretians among the burgeoning and increasingly global contexts that characterise society today.

One of the lepers turns back to give thanks to Jesus with humility and joy; like the leper, we should also take time to turn back to God in thanksgiving and gratitude,

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR MISSION IN THE WORLD

One of our missions as Secular Claretians is the work and effort to transform temporal realities; in order to transform them, it is necessary to have the grace to be thankful for the gifts already received from God. The act of being thankful will help us be increasingly disposed to help our brothers and sisters in need, and in this way to help build the local church as a community of faith, hope and charity.

PRAYER FROM THE GOSPEL

Lord Jesus, we give you thanks for the vocation to which you have called us, a ministry of service to our brothers and sisters as Secular Claretians. Help us to be a lighted candle of gratitude to you, to remember always that we would be nothing without the fire of your Spirit, and that by uniting ourselves to other candles we can spread your Word ever more widely. Amen.
